

PROCEDURE FOR IMPOSING FINES
WILD RIVER OWNER'S ASSOCIATION
Effective March 1, 2004

Item	Action:
Written Complaint/Report Received by Board	The complaint or report is investigated by the Board or the ARC. If the ARC investigates it will report to the Board within 10 business days.
ARC Report to Board	The Board then determines if there is an infraction and, if so , the recommended appropriate action the property owner needs to take to correct complaint.
Notice to Homeowner, if infraction has been determined to exist	Board sends a notice (registered, return receipt requested) to the homeowner of the infraction and period allowed to cure the problem (generally 30 days) including the action property needs to take to be in compliance. Included is information on the fine and the procedure for appeal. If no infraction, a letter is sent to person initiating complaint explaining why it was not an infraction of CC7R's/ Rules & Regulations.
Inspection for Compliance	Upon expiration of the compliance period or notification to Board by property owner that they have complied, the Board requests ARC to inspect for compliance.
Report to the Board	ARC provides a written report on homeowner compliance to the Board with a recommendation for further action, if any.
Notice of Compliance	The Board sends a Notice of Compliance to the homeowner acknowledging their compliance and whether a fine will be assessed.
Notice of Noncompliance and Assessment of Fee	The Board sends a Notice of Noncompliance to the homeowner and the assessment of a fine. The Notice includes information on what will happen if the fine is not paid and what the homeowner must do to avoid further penalties.
Legal Action	The Board advises legal counsel of the noncompliance and requests appropriate legal action be taken (i.e. filing of lien, etc.)
